SMALL BUSINESS CERTIFICATION (SBE) PROGRAM

Have you and your company been exploring getting your Small Business Enterprise (SBE) Certification and aren't quite sure where to start? Are you looking for some new avenues of business development in LA County and LA City contracts? Join certification and small business advocate and expert, Jack Ochoa from Infinity GPC, LLC and the Pacific Coast Regional Small Business Development Corporation for a four week journey to better understand the local government procurement process for contract opportunities. This four week program will leave you with a better understanding of the procurement process, assist you with developing a capability statement for your business, and provide an education of all local SBE Certifications.

Have you and your company been explored obtaining your Small Business Enterprise (SBE) Certification? Well now is the time to make that happen! Don't miss out!
